Following the tours, Baie-D'Urfé Mayor Heidi Ektvedt delivered heartfelt remarks, capturing the significance of the occasion:

"It is a great privilege for me that we are here together in the grand room known for over 100 years as the gathering place for public meetings and centre of decision-making for our community. I look forward to opening the doors and welcoming the voices of citizens as we make decisions together for the future of this town rooted in history."

The celebration concluded with a ribbon-cutting ceremony, officially marking the start of this new chapter for Baie-D'Urfé. Among the attendees were former Baie-D'Urfé Mayor Anne Myles and MP Francis Scarpaleggia, along with an intimate group who shared in this special moment.
