Prizes

Dance tickets, at $3 per couple, are on sale - call Chris Powrie.

The evening's entertainment will include drahmah, as presented by the Baie d'Urfée Little Theatre Group an original play, in the round, one act, no scene. Direct from Stratford (where play and players were run out of town).

"Pardon My Weepers"

ADDENDA, ERRATA, TRIVIA, ETCETERA

There will be no August issue of News and Views.

It is in your interest to take an interest in town affairs. Council meetings, for example, are open to the public. Council meets the first Tuesday of each month. Town Hall.

Forgive us for those TWO Devon roads we had listed on our town "Map" two issues ago. The smallest Devon shouldn't have been.

A sign erected on property fronting the Metropolitan Boulevard, east of Morgan Road, and advertising a Montreal nursery, would seem to be a contravention of town by-laws.

WARNING - swimming AFTER DARK at the town hall area is forbidden. It is forbidden because it is dangerous.

Chairman Jack Mitcham climbed aboard his train at Winnipeg to continue on to Vancouver, and who should be on the same car - Millie Proudfoot. Also Vancouver-bound.

Baie d'Urfée isn't the only centre of drama these days (see Baie d'Urfée Day program). Mrs. Jack Mitcham, Mrs. Will Spriggs, Mrs. Jack Holton and Mary Kirkpatrick drove together to a place called Stratford to get a few pointers for the local talent.

PARENTS please accompany your little toddlers to the beach, and don't let non-swimmers go out on the wharf. There have been a couple of near-things recently.

Paul Gagnon, of the Montreal Botanical Gardens, will be inspecting the grounds of Baie d'Urfée Horticultural Society members during the week of July 25 to select some of the outstanding showplaces of the town. The three best in each of six districts - Oak Ridge, Sunny Acres, Lakeview-Morgan Roads, Bayview, College Green and Lakeshore Road - and then the MOST outstanding of all will be picked out.

Baie d'Urfée Day is YOUR day come out, have fun. Those raffle tickets are well worth buying, look at the prizes mantle radio, coffee table, aluminum chair and ladies blouse. And of course there is a host of prizes for the dance.

Don MacDonald, of St. Andrews Rd., was named vice-president of the Quebec Federation of Horticulture, at its annual convention here June 11. Over 300 attended - the biggest convention ever.

Ian Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Baker, is doing a first rate job as assistant lifeguard.

From Harold Stanfield, of the well-known advertising agency, through Duncan Tingle, comes an unusual gift for the town - a pontoon raft 30 feet long, seven feet wide and three feet deep, and worth, it is said, something like $1275. A puffing bee to blow it up would seem in order.
